Basket Range Sharing Shed

Kendrea Rhodes - About 18 months ago, this old bus-shelter was termite ridden, slowly disintegrating and very much overlooked. But in its hey-day, from 1942 to 1970, the shed was regularly full of people waiting for the green and brown Graeber bus to take them to school, local towns, or into Adelaide. It was an important community meeting point and, while waiting for a bus, what else was there to do but talk or read a book?

Thanks to two local ladies, Alison Cranwell and Kate King, that community meeting point vibe at the bus shelter is in full swing again in the form of a 'sharing shed'. Alison, Kate and committed community members renovated the shelter to create a place where people can "Take what you need — Give what you can". At the Basket Range Sharing Shed you may meet others dropping off produce, tidying and sorting, or picking up produce, a book or magazine — all for free!

The Queen of England was coming to Gawler! I was teaching a year 2/3 class at the time and conducting a school choir. There was a buzz in the air as we had been invited to sing for the Queen.

We practiced and practiced till we got it perfect.

I remember standing with my student choir on the grandstand. We strained our eyes to see the Queen. Finally she arrived. (We heard, rather than saw her arrival!) There were shouts and cheers in the air. For what seemed like ages, the Queen walked slowly towards the grandstand, greeting people as she went. We sang our hearts out and the Queen graciously clapped, smiled and moved on to meet dignitaries.

We were buzzing with excitement. We had seen the Queen in the flesh!!

2000 years ago, Someone who ruled the universe came. He had flung stars into space, dug out the depths of the ocean and sculpted mountains. He had cascaded plants all over the earth and filled it with birds, animals and us.

When He came, all Heaven held its breath. In the arms of a teenage virgin, the Son of God, the Creator of the Universe, the King of all Kings was cradled, a tiny infant. God became man. The wonder of this is hard to fathom.

God became man. The Creator became the created. He left His splendor and glory, much like the Queen left her palace to visit Gawler. But unlike the Queen, God came as a helpless, dependent babe. He relied on Mary to breastfeed Him, to change His nappies, to teach Him to talk and walk. Through many trials and temptations, Jesus always, in thought, word and deed did just as God His Father wanted. So different from you and I. The Queen came to see the progress of our state. Jesus came to save us from our selves.

You and I refuse to have a relationship with God. We were one with Him (think Adam and Eve walking and chatting with Him in the garden.) but we chose to trust in our own decisions and freely chose to disobey Him. Jesus came to take the consequences and punishment for our rejection of God upon Himself, so that we could be forgiven and reunited with God. Jesus is God's gift to us, we have the choice to either accept or reject Him.

God took our punishment upon Himself. I can only bow my knee in humble worship of such a God. I matter to Him! You matter to Him! Celebrate THAT this Christmas.

GIFTS FOR THE CHILDREN

Traditionally, members of the Lions Club of Onkaparinga have brought presents along for each other when they get together for their annual Christmas dinner. The one night in a busy season that they party among themselves. But the past two years have seen a difference; instead of gifts for each other, they have assembled a swag of presents for children going through crisis in our northern suburbs.

Past president Lynn Howard found the need existed when she moved address to Hillier, and her fellow members were delighted to be able to support her in helping make Christmas more enjoyable for families associated with the Northern Domestic Violence Centre - for a second year in a row. In addition to a Lions Santa sack full of toys for the children, the club this year also gave a sponsorship cheque for $1,000 to help the group... proceeds from another successful year of raising funds in their charity Shed at Woodside.

LANDMARK Harcourts Mount Pleasant

RICHARD INWOOD - Real Estate Agent

Dedicated | Customer Focused | Results Driven

Using extensive local experience to your advantage whether buying or selling

Dear Resident,

For over 30 years Landmark Harcourts Mount Pleasant has been a referral-based business working with generations of families throughout the Murray Lands, Barossa and the Northern Adelaide Hills.

Referrals only occur when results are reliably delivered and our clients are consistently pleased and happy to refer our business to friends and family. I would like to offer our experience and services to you.

Making a decision to offer your property to the market is a big decision. My commitment to you is to;

- (a) assist you with the facts and valuations of your property – lets discuss timing, marketing plans and a defensible valuation (we don't take listings just for the sake of it, we want a positive outcome for you)
- (b) ensure that more money remains in your pocket after the sale – we are tenacious in negotiating the maximum sale price on your behalf and our fee and costs structure are pleasantly competitive

Your first decision is easy, give Landmark Harcourts Mount Pleasant 1 hour of your time to develop a complete market appraisal which is free and yours to use as you wish. I am available 8 am - 8 pm, 7 days a week – 0428 606 420.

Once you have the facts, you are in a powerful position to consider presenting your property to the market when it suits you and your family.

I look forward to meeting with you.

With regards,

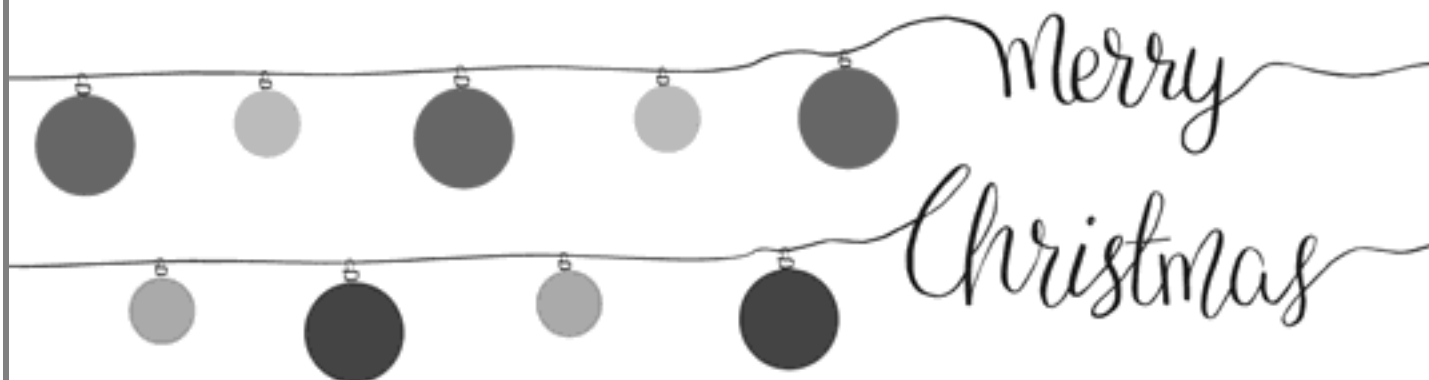

Richard - Landmark Harcourts Mount Pleasant

This is actual sharing: no obligation, no bartering and no money. The only valuation is increased social capital within the community from a system based on trust, cooperation and understanding — essential elements for a well-adjusted society.

The Basket Range Sharing Shed combines two altruistic ideas: Grow Free and Street Library. On its shelves you will find home grown produce such as fruit, vegetables, herbs, preserves, eggs, seeds including Heirloom, seedlings, cuttings and rootstock. Also, other items like coffee grounds and worm tea for the garden, gardening magazines, clean jars, preserves, paper bags and boxes too. While you're there, browse the Street Library for novels, children's books, magazines and read the pin-board for notes and heartfelt messages of gratitude.

The Grow Free concept began in Strathalbyn, but the ideas of sharing food and surplus have long existed between groups of humans.

Grow Free is a modern format for an ancient practice; a format that fits into our fast-paced lives of technology, transport and efficiency. It started with sharing seedlings and promoting more nutritious foods, but has blossomed into sharing surplus produce like eggs, fruit and veg, and gardening implements. The Grow Free concept has expanded into Western Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, New Zealand and the USA. In the Adelaide Hills there are more than 20

Grow Free Carts including another combined with a Street Library at The Olive Branch Café in Balhannah. Visit the 'Grow Free – Adelaide Hills' Facebook group to keep up with the latest or their website for more information: www.growfree.com.au.

The Street Library is a similar concept based on sharing and surplus without money or barter. There's no library card or ID required, just respect and literary love. The idea is simple: browse the Street Library, take a book and go about your day. And if you have books gathering dust, you might feed them back into a Street Library sometime in the future. For more information visit their website: streetlibrary.org.au.

For more information on Facebook visit the 'Basket Range Community Chat and Noticeboard' or the 'Grow Free Adelaide Hills' group. Or call Alison Cranwell on 0409 287 218 or Kate King on 0438 834 758. They are both happy to help anyone interested in similar community endeavours.

Dunn Memorial Church receives heritage grant

The State Government has provided a grant of $12,470 towards heritage preservation work at the Dunn Memorial Church in Mount Barker.

The funds will be put towards urgent work to repair the spire and tower of the Church. Small sections of the spire and facade of the building have broken off, posing a safety risk to pedestrians.

The Church was one of 25 State Heritage listed places in South Australia to receive a grant through the second round of the SA Heritage Grants program.

Dan Cregan MP, Member for Kavel said that the State Government was committed to helping rejuvenate South Australia's built heritage.

"The spire and tower of the Church have needed repair work for quite some time," Mr Cregan said.

"I am pleased that the State Government has been able to provide a contribution towards the repairs."

Mrs Margaret Rose, Chairperson of the Dunn Memorial

Church said the repair work would ensure the building was preserved for future generations.

"The Dunn Memorial Church is one of the most significant historical buildings in Mount Barker," Mrs Rose said.

"This grant is in addition to a previous grant of $7,530 that the Church received through round one of the SA Heritage Grant Program."

"We very much appreciate Dan's support in securing the funds towards the urgent work now underway."
